

Do not weaken the Do Not Call law. My rights as a human are more important than the rights of telemarketing companies. I deserve to live in peace and do not authorize anyone to call me for solicitative purposes.